Taxpayer claims unfair treatment by Town Hall

Mr. Gordon Smith of 31 Gillian Crescent is rather unhappy with the functioning of Town Hall last week. Like many residents he received his tax notice dated July 14. The amount involved was $540.14 with a penalty to be added of $43.21 if the taxes were not paid in 30 days. He made a note to pay his taxes on Aug. 14 and went to Town Hall at 4:15 p.m., that day to do so. He was informed that the penalty was in effect after Aug. 13.

Gordon then realized his error, but explained to the clerk that he honestly had thought he had until Aug. 14, and asked to see the secretary, Mr. O'Connell. Mr. O'Connell produced the by-law and pointed out that it had to be adhered to. The mayor was also approached, and he too said the town must abide by the bylaw covering penalty dates.

Without paying his bill, Mr. Smith then left town hall and later discovered that another taxpayer, Mr. Evans of St. Albert, had made the same miscalculation, but was not charged the penalty when he paid his taxes at 2:05 p.m., on Aug. 14. Deciding that it was of no use to go back to town hall, Mr. Smith telephoned Councillor Russell and explained the situation. Councillor Russell checked with town hall and discovered that a taxpayer had indeed paid his bill without penalty around 2 p.m. Aug. 14.

While not denying his mistake in figuring the 30 day deadline, Mr. Smith contends that all taxpayers should be treated equally.

Contacted by the Gazette on Monday, Councillor Russell stated that he would bring the matter before council meeting that evening, and had some recommendations to make to ensure that such

St. Albert man wins $1,000

The next time Margo Johnston tries to talk Dave into going somewhere, she'll probably have an easier time than when she was trying to persuade him to see the Edmonton House Building Association's show. After visiting the show with friends, Mrs. Johnston was so impressed that she tried to talk Dave into going, but couldn't interest him at all. They went out to their cottage for the weekend but returned early Sunday because of rainy weather. Margo went after Dave again and he finally agreed to go. It was the last night of the show, Aug. 16. While they were making the rounds Margo filled out a coupon for one of the prizes being offered, and marked Dave's name on it.

They just nicely got home around 10 p.m. when the phone rang. Dave answered and was informed he was the winner of the $1,000 prize given away the final night of the show. For a moment Dave thought somebody was pulling his leg, but soon realized he actually had won the handsome sum. The show had $50 daily prizes and one grand prize of $1,000.

Dave, who manages Dave's Meat Market on Perron St., and his wife and daughter, Kim, who live at 13 Sable Crescent, are presently on a week's vacation.

Take note, fellows - if your wife tries to drag you somewhere, it might be well to humor her.

District 6 opens with new concepts

School District No. 6 is busily preparing to meet the crush of students on registration day, Sept. 1. Larger than normal increase in enrolment is anticipated in view of the many new housing units which have been completed in St. Albert, and schools have been staffed accordingly.

Superintendent E. S. Gish names the following highlights in educational plans for the 1970-71 school year:

1) An addition to Sir Alexander Mackenzie School featuring a 10-class open instructional area - a new dimension in elementary education in St. Albert. Attractively decorated and furnished, this "open area" will provide a pleasant and exciting learning environment for elementary children. The official opening of this wing will be held on Nov. 20, 1970.

2) Beginners are being admitted to grade one at an earlier age than last year - all those children who will be six by Feb. 28, 1971, will be accepted. Provision has been made for a special readiness program for pupils who require it.

3) The employment of school aides has been extended for the next year.

4) Schools will also strive to expand the use of voluntary help in the classrooms and libraries, and generally increase the involvement of parents in the education of their children.

5) The department of education has just recently approved the construction of a new high school, and the architects will soon commence the preliminary design.

Three pretty little girls pose a week early with their school books, to help remind St. Albert drivers that scenes like this will be commonplace starting Sept. 1. They are from left: Kerry Donnelly, eight of 2 Salina Dr., Andrea Riddell, seven of 11 Salina Dr., and Brenda Mitchell, seven, of 7 Salina Dr., who attend Leo Nickerson School. We have hundreds of little darlings like this in St. Albert - they are worth a lot of extra careful driving.

Council concerned over arena delays

St. Albert town council handled a relatively light agenda Monday in less than two hours - one of the shorter meetings on record for some time. Mayor Gibbon, Councillors Lukay, de Bruijn, Kambouroff and Russell, staff members O'Connell, Roberts, Beedle and Maandag were in attendance.

The lot at 44 Balmoral, left open in the controversial Bishop street closing, came up for discussion resulting in a motion by Lukay that it be advertised for sale by tender with a minimum price tag of $3,500. To that would be added local improvement charges which would bring total price in the neighborhood of $7,000. The motion passed unanimously.

The mayor requested that bylaw #2-10 be included on the agenda for third reading. After strong objections by Councillors Russell and Kambouroff, and further explanation by the mayor that the third reading was already long delayed. The request was voted down 3-2, with de Bruijn supporting Russell and Kambouroff. It will appear on the agenda of the next regular council meeting. The bylaw in question deals with the corner of Ball Avenue and St. Albert Trail, proposed site for a hotel.

G. P. Moore was appointed returning officer for the forthcoming election in October when two council seats will be filled. (Those of Bakker and Wheatley).

Public works reported that a letter would be forwarded Tuesday, requesting immediate approval in principle of the recreation grant applied for to the provincial government for the arena. Such approval is required before the sub-surface job can be commenced in preparation for making ice this winter. Pipes will be laid on the completed hard surface base. Mr. Tom White, past-president of the Kinsmen Club was in the gallery and the mayor asked if he would like to speak on behalf of the Kinsmen on their project of providing an artificial ice plant. Mr. White said that the plant had been ordered and a letter with pertinent information would be in council's hands shortly.

New Manager at Calgary Power

Mr. Elmer Beisiegel has been appointed as district manager for Calgary Power out of the St. Albert office. Formerly district manager at Rimby, Alberta, Mr. Beisiegel took over the position from Mr. Ernie Coles on Aug. 15. He has been with the company for 21 years, and while in Rimby served on town council and the volunteer fire brigade. He is an active curler, a league member and a former lion. Mr. Beisiegel is anxious to find accommodation in St. Albert for his family before school begins. Mr. and Mrs. Beisiegel have four children ranging in age from four to 19.

a situation would not occur again. Mr. Russell felt it would be wise to show on the tax notice the exact date of the deadline, and that all payments should either be postmarked the day before that date, or paid at the town hall on that date, or earlier, in order to qualify for no penalty.

Under new business at Monday night's meeting Councillor Russell brought Mr. Smith's case before council. Pointing out that he was familiar with the bylaw, Mr. Russell also said he knew of the case in which a taxpayer did not pay the penalty on Aug. 14, and requested an explanation.

Mayor Gibbon said he was aware of what had taken place and had discussed the matter fully with secretary O'Connell, with regard to improved procedure to prevent such an occurrence in future. Mr. O'Connell said the reason for the situation was that the date on the cash register is not changed until after the previous day's balance has been struck, which on Aug. 14 was not until sometime after 2 p.m.

Councillor de Bruijn expressed his opinion that it was grossly unfair that one man was penalized and one was not. Mr. O'Connell admitted "what we have done is wrong." In reply to Mr. Russell's question "Was this a housekeeping error?" Mr. O'Connell said "Yes, it was." Mr. Russell said it must never happen again.

Mayor Gibbon agreed with councillor's suggestion that exact deadline date appear on future tax notices in future.

No action was taken to satisfy Mr. Smith's complaint of unequal treatment.

New Principal Appointed to Vital Grandin

John P. Patterson, a lecturer in the faculty of education at the University of Alberta, has been appointed principal of the Vital Grandin Public School. He replaces Lloyd Deutscher recently appointed Superintendent of Schools in Lac La Biche.

Mr. Patterson was born in Edmonton, attended Mount Carmel Elementary and St. Mary's High Schools prior to entering the faculty of physical education at the U of A. In 1969 he obtained his Master of Education degree from the U of A.

He held teaching positions with the Edmonton Separate School Board from 1962 to 1967 and from 1968 to the present, he lectured at the U of A. For the past several years he has been actively involved in the preparation of recreation leaders for city playgrounds and day camps in Edmonton, and in counselling of chronic traffic offenders for the Edmonton Safety Council.

He has a keen interest in all areas of athletics, particularly golf and curling, and in 1967 he held the position of defensive backfield coach with the Canadian Junior Football champions, the Edmonton Wildcats.

JOHN P. PATTERSON

ersons are presently awaiting the completion of their new home in St. Albert and will move here approximately Dec. 1.

The community welcomes Mr. Patterson and his family to St. Albert, with good wishes for his success in his new position as principal of the Vital Grandin Elementary and Junior High School.

New Clinic Now in Operation

Although the Tarangle Associate Clinic is new to St. Albert, opening its doors on July 27, Dr. Steven Tarangle came to live here in 1964. He is enthusiastic about St. Albert and looking forward to practicing in what he describes as a clean community with room to grow.

practitioner since 1965, with special interest in physical medicine and physiotherapy. Prior to enrolling in medicine, he taught math and science in a number of Alberta high schools.

A year ago Tarangle Clinic in Edmonton accepted an invitation from the provincial government to open a clinic in Yellowknife, NWT, where there was great need of expanded medical services. Two doctors went and have been extremely busy there. Administration wise the Yellowknife clinic will be handled out of St. Albert, and Dr. Tarangle has just returned from a visit there.

He has spent considerable time on the five-day plan for people wishing to stop smoking, and worked with Dr. J. M. Howell of the Sturgeon Health Unit on this program in Westlock. Dr. Howell is familiar with the plan which he worked with in England.

Dr. Tarangle has also conducted a number of courses for the YMCA and various churches in Edmonton, where classes of about two dozen are put through at a time.

Dr. and Mrs. Tarangle, who recently moved to a farm-site home near Namao, have two daughters, eight and 10 years old.

Dr. C. Russell Cousineau, associated with Dr. Tarangle in the clinic is a graduate from the University of Alberta with high scholastic achievement. He practised for 30 years in Castor, Alberta and has done a great deal of surgery. At present Dr. Cousineau is away on vacation.

Both doctors are well pleased with the conversion of this building in Grandin Shoppers Park into an attractive and functional clinic. The premises were formerly occupied by Bills Radio and TV.

Miss Laura Turner, who will graduate as an RN from the University School of Nursing in December, is handling both nursing and receptionist duties at present.

Mr. Peter Bidlock, who holds a university degree in commerce, administers Tarangle clinics along with a number of others. He is also enjoying an August vacation.

Computer roommate matching

The on-campus computer system for matching roommates at the University of Waterloo in southwestern Ontario resulted in 50 per cent fewer roommate change requests in its first year of operation, according to a report in Canadian University and College magazine.

The computer system, which was developed by three Waterloo graduate students and operated by the university's computer centre, was used to match roommates in a 480-room residence accommodating 960 students.

St. Albert team swamps swim meet

The St. Albert Swim Club dominated the provincial 'B' swimming meet on the weekend in the Central Alberta Regional championships held at the University of Alberta indoor pool. A total of 18 clubs competed and put 48 new records into the books in the 70 event meet.

Barbara McCaffery and Denise Savole led the St. Albert team, setting five records between them with Savole taking home three. Denise, who didn't qualify in first place in any of Saturday's heats, came on strong Sunday to win first in each of the three events she entered.

Barbara won all four races she entered and outstanding award for her age group. Cathy Fowler, Graham Clark and John Grave also set records.

Coached by Bernie Luttmer, St. Albert teams won four of eight contests in both the medley relay and freestyle events. St. Albert retained the meet's high point trophy outpacing Drayton Valley 480-242, Camrose and Hanna placed third and fourth with 235 and 203. Other outstanding awards went to Ken Clark of Hinton (11-12); Dean Samis (13-14); and Sheryl Daviduck (open) both of Drayton Valley.

Mike Sandomirsky in the 10 and under class is one of St. Albert's outstanding swimmers, but was not in his usual form Sunday, although he scored one third and two fourth placings, gaining entry into the consolation finals in Calgary. Mike is expected to show up very well in his events this weekend.

Following is a list of the St. Albert swimmers who gained entry to the provincial finals. First and second placings enter the provincial finals and third and fourth placings go into the consolation finals. Asterisk indicates new provincial record holder.

A Town planner talks about his job

"Town planners are like insurance salesmen — selling life insurance to communities for 25 or 30 years — and you know it's not easy to sell life insurance."

This is the opinion of Dusan L. (Danny) Makale, president of Makale, Hollaway and Associates Ltd., town and regional planning consultants.

Mr. Makale, planning consultant for the MD of Sturgeon and for the County of Strathcona, points out that town planners have a two-fold purpose — serving the needs of today and projecting needs in the future.

"Town planners have to give direction to growth."

His firm has been in the business of directing growth for the past 14 years. Established in 1956 under the name of D. L. Makale Planning Consultant, his was the first planning consulting firm in the prairie provinces. Since its incorporation under its present name in 1966, the firm has operated extensively throughout Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and the Northwest Territories.

In the fields of comprehensive planning, special planning studies and project planning, the firm has undertaken almost 200 projects. As president, Mr. Makale brings to his firm a truly cosmopolitan background which includes training in architecture at the University of Bologna, Italy, and in town and regional planning at the London School of Planning, England.

Mr. Makale was advisor to the MD of Sturgeon in recent hearings before the Local Authorities Board held to consider BACM's proposal for annexation of part of the MD of Sturgeon to the northeast corner of the City of Edmonton.

Because no decision has yet been handed down on the matter, Mr. Makale is not free to comment on his findings as the municipality's planning consultant in this case. It is expected that a decision on the annexation bid will be announced by the end of August or early in September, he states.

In the meantime, however, Mr. Makale is not reluctant to voice some firm opinions on the growth of cities in general.

To begin with, he considers that one of modern man's greatest misconceptions is that he talks about the city at all.

"Cities are essentially corporate structures. The word 'city' denotes a certain jurisdiction only and it is a major mistake to talk about the city in terms of population and how that population is distributed in a certain area."

"It is the region that controls people coming to a certain part of the country — not just the city." Many factors other than the city are taken into consideration in a certain region, he says, including agricultural and economic factors.

"The ideal is to distribute population over a wider area of land."

So-called satellite towns — and Mr. Makale says he doesn't particularly like the term — are one form of handling distribution or concentration of population, "but there should be an interdependency between the outskirts and the core or urbanized area."

With regard to giving direction to their own growth cities and towns are not in a position to judge what is best for them, according to Mr. Makale.

"They are naturally self centred."

"The central city is inward-oriented and cannot contain and discipline itself. This must be done by a higher level of government which can see the entire situation and region."

The present concept in cities has failed all over the North American continent, says Mr. Makale, citing Montreal, Toronto, Los Angeles and New York as examples of that failure.

He calls these cities "dinosaurs of our times." Toronto, he says is now finding solutions to containing its size through deliberate legislation, strict control over open land and creating new centres of growth.

"If you have a region which attracts population because of economic or geographical factors, solutions to urban growth have to be found within the region. Population should be distributed in a way to serve the entire region. You could have five centres of growth with one dominant centre which contains governmental, cultural and recreational facilities."

In this case, transportation is the key to success. These sub-centres, according to Mr. Makale, would have their own populations and would require effective transportation to the central core.

Further on the subject of decentralization by deliverate planning, he cited the

Town planner

decentralization of University of Alberta facilities which, he states, has been done, not only because of lack of space as the university farm could have been utilized if required, but "for very serious social reasons."

"Size eventually starts defeating itself. It becomes inefficient and crushes the individual."

Asked what he considered to be the role of computers in planning, Mr. Makale replied emphatically that he considered them excellent as a tool only.

"I'm very suspicious of big miracles," he said.

Admitting that computers could free planners for a more spiritual and imaginative approach to directing growth, he expressed fear of an over-emphasis on mental laziness and a poverty of ideas. "The search for answers is far more important than the questions, because answers lie in ideas."

Mr. Makale described his "horror" at many American planners who "are in favor of everything computerized." This leaves no place for human genius, talent or aesthetics, he said.

As planner for the Town of St. Albert, assigned by the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission from 1951 to 1956, Mr. Makale has been much involved with the growth of this particular area. He states that he now attends ERPC meetings "as an observer only — not in any official capacity."

After what appeared to be a "hull in regional development plans," he is now hopeful that the government is taking the initiative in the matter of regional planning.

"I was encouraged by statements made in this regard by Mr. Colborne, minister of municipal affairs and Premier Strom, before the convention of the Town Planning Institute of Canada," Mr. Makale is president-elect of this body.

He speaks with enthusiasm of a new plan envisaged for the area.

"We don't really have a regional plan at present. We have a land-use plan which is more of a conservation type of plan but which does not initiate enough that is drastic or new. A new plan will be oriented to future achievements and goals."

Mr. Makale considers as a "health situation" many governments in a region — where the citizen is closer to the government and participates in the governing of his own community. As cities become too large, the situation becomes too remote. It's like all of Canada being governed from one central spot without provincial governments, he said.

Around Town

Winner of the Klondike hat raffled by the St. Albert Women's Institute was Mrs. Betty Sutherland of 5616 — 114 St., Edmonton. The WI who will not get into full swing again until September, have however a hand quilted crib quilt all ready to present to the first baby born in Sturgeon General Hospital.

St. Albert swimmers turned in a great performance at the regional swim meet over the weekend — and no parents! These hardy moms and dads, plus recreation co-ordinator Rene Laird, gave up both Saturday and Sunday to assist with officiating the meet. They worked from 7:30 a.m. to one p.m. and again from 5 to 11 p.m. on Saturday, only to be back at 8 a.m. Sunday for a 17-hour stretch ending at 1 p.m. When our swim team goes to Calgary for the provincial finals this weekend they will again be accompanied by more than 20 parents.

St. Albert Parish Kindergarten will hold their annual meeting Wednesday, Sept. 2 in the Roman Catholic Church basement at 8 p.m. There are vacancies open for enrolment in the kindergarten. Telephone 599-8160.

Alberta's Great Moments

Starring the famous players from your lovable Lethbridge label

A mere mountain won't stop that crazy cast of characters from the Lethbridge label. They've got a flag worth waving: the Lethbridge Pilsner pennant that promises the peak of good old-fashioned flavour in every glass. That's the way it's been for nearly half a century. And that's the way it'll stay — as real and rugged as our pioneer tradition. So next time call for Alberta's original Pilsner. Enjoy your own Great Moments with Lethbridge Pils.

Ryleys welcome family from afar

Benghazi, Tripoli, Monrovia Bay, Kingston, Jamaica—they're all names that conjure up visions of romantic places and they're becoming commonplace words around the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ryley of 19 Sylvan Drive, St. Albert.

Reason for this cosmopolitan atmosphere is a visit from two family members—Mrs. Harry Robertson, Mrs. Ryley's sister who has come from Libya and the Ryley's daughter, Wrennie, home from a stint as a teacher with CUSO in Jamaica.

Mrs. Robertson, the former Noel MacDonald of Edmonton, has lived for 10 years in Libya where her husband is employed with Esso Standard Libya Incorporated. Mr. Robertson was with Imperial Oil in Edmonton, Camrose and Estevan before he applied to join the foreign service of the company.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Robertson normally spend several weeks a year in Canada, this year Mrs. Robertson came ahead of her husband in order to attend the reunion marking the 55th anniversary of the Grads Basketball Team. Mrs. Robertson became a member of the famed team from McDougall Commercial High School when she attended business classes there fol-owing studies at Westmount and Victoria High Schools in Edmonton.

As well as visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mrs. Robertson is spending time with her daughter who is an inhalation therapist for Holy Cross Hospital in Calgary and her son, who is employed with Univac in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson make their home at Marsa el Brega, a company town housing approximately 150 families—Norwegian, German, French, British, Canadian, American and Libyan. The population of the town has increased recently with the building of a gas plant which Mrs. Robertson describes as the biggest of its kind in the world.

The Robertsons have also lived in Benghazi and Tripoli. Mrs. Robertson says that she has found life in Libya extremely interesting and that she's enjoyed it thoroughly. She says that she speaks "a little Arabic."

"Still, I'm a Canadian and we'll come back here when my husband retires. It's a bit unsettling deciding where to live when we retire. We're old people and would want to live among them, but the thought of a prairie winter is a little frightening."

"It's amazing how one softens up," she said, referring to life in agentile climate. Situated between the Sahara and the Mediterranean, Mrs. Robertson describes the climate of Marsa el Brega as beautiful with its own natural air conditioning created by cool air from the sea coming in to replace hot air rising from the desert. The only unpleasant weather results from the "ghibli" or hot wind from the desert which sometimes blows for two or three days at a time in the spring and fall.

Miles of white sand beach give the area tremendous resort potential, although very little development has taken place, she said.

Living in Libya has offered Mrs. Robertson opportunities for travel in Europe and the Mediterranean area.

On a recent trip to Nicosia, Cyprus, she attended fashion shows where clothes from Athens and Beirut were shown.

"Middle-east women are extremely fashion conscious and there are a lot of excellent dressmakers there who can imitate couturier designs without using a pattern."

Fashion shows in the middle-east are a "real production." As many men as women attend and the models all entertain—with everything from singing to belly dancing to the music of a

Mrs. Noel Robertson, left, displays a lovely abalaster cup and saucer which she purchased at the Grand Bazaar in Istanbul and brought to St. Albert as a keepsake for her sister, Mrs. Ryley. At right, Wrennie Ryley holds a hand-carved mahogany turtle sent home with her from a friend in Jamaica as a gift for Wrennie's sister Bobbie.

"hot orchestra really belting out the music."

She reports that the mind is on its way out in that part of the world too, with knee-length skirts and midis being shown, many crocheted clothes and beachwear featuring floor-length skirts and long side-slits.

Mrs. Robertson has worked during much of her stay in Libya and because of this she feels she has come to know Libyans better than most foreigners in the country do, as she has had the opportunity to become acquainted with wives and families of co-workers.

The Libyan woman's life has always centred around the home and she has not taken much part in public life. With Libyan girls now being educated, this is gradually changing, Mrs. Robertson explains.

One doesn't hear of young people involved with drugs and protest demonstrations in Libya and these problems are apparently non-existent according to Mrs. Robertson. There is great respect shown for the older generation.

Although work hours are long—from 7:30 to 5 p.m., life at Marsa el Brega affords plenty of opportunity for recreation, with golf, riding and tennis all available.

Mrs. Robertson reports that former residents of the Edmonton area also living in the town include Mr. and the Westlock area. Mr. Robertson will be joining his wife for vacation in Canada, later in September.

Ryleys welcome

Jamaica draws Wrennie back

Wrennie Ryley, who has just completed a two-year contract with Canadian University Service Overseas, is enjoying her stay at home but plans to return to a teaching job in Jamaica "probably at the end of the month."

This time however, she'll be working on a private contract. CUSO volunteers are assigned to a two-year contract. This can be extended for one year, but Wrennie has decided to obtain a work permit and teach on her own this year.

As a CUSO worker, she's been paid a volunteer salary by the Jamaican government. She has taught at a technical institute at Montego Bay. Her classes in typewriting and commercial courses have been attended by about 30 pupils - including three boys. The students speak English patois in their homes but correct English in school she says.

This has been a first teaching job for Wrennie who is a graduate of Paul Kane High and of NAIT. She was asked why she chose CUSO.

"A girl friend was interested so I asked her to look into it further for me. So she did - but I don't think she ever did join CUSO herself."

Wrennie originally boarded with a family in Montego Bay and now stays at the YWCA. The cost of renting an apartment would be prohibitive, she says.

"Shopping in Montego Bay is mostly for the tourists. Prices are very high and a lot of the girls do all their shopping in Miami, about 200 miles away."

Social life in the area centres around the beach with snorkeling, skin diving and water skiing being the main sports - and the night clubs which open after midnight and operate until early morning hours.

"This is for tourists who can sleep in the morning in their air-conditioned hotel rooms. For anyone else, it's much too hot to sleep after 9 a.m.," says Wrennie. Temperatures can easily be at 90 by that time of day.

"It gets quite cold in winter though. Temperatures sometimes drop as low as 75°."

Although she had three weeks holiday at Christmas, Wrennie decided not to come home. The motivation isn't too great, she says, when "it's 80 degrees there and 30 below here." Also, CUSO volunteers are not encouraged to go home during the year. This is partly due to the danger of "culture shock," Wrennie explains. Seeing people wasting things and living in apparent luxury is a bit too much to take when contrasted with the poverty and privation that exists in so many countries where CUSO volunteers are working.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryley visited Wrennie in Jamaica last summer. "We thoroughly enjoyed it," said Mrs. Ryley, "except it was quite a shock for my husband. He left the Arctic one day and two days later he was sweltering in Montego Bay."

Newlyweds settle on Gibbons farm

The Emmanuel Community Reformed Church, Edmonton was the scene of a lovely summer wedding on July 18 when Gwen Snyder of Edmonton was united in a double ring ceremony to Ernest Hall of Gibbons. The minister was the Rev. J. Moerman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kerbes of Big Valley, Alberta, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Mary Ann Hall and the late Herbert Hall of Gibbons.

The organist was Mr. Wollinga and the soloist Miss Gounie Vandermear.

Bouquets of white and blue mums decorated the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gown-

Little Things That Add Up

If it be true, as some psychiatrists say, that the female of the species is better able to tolerate adverse conditions, it may be due to the way little things add up around the house. For example if one of the family drops a whole quart of milk and it shatters all over the kitchen floor, you can be certain this didn't happen just before the floor was to be scrubbed. Nine times out of ten it happens just after. Or ask any housewife when to expect a windstorm followed by rain — that's right — the day after she's cleaned all the windows.

ned in a blue lace ensemble with white accessories. Her ornaments were pearl earrings and necklace, gift of the groom. Her hair band was of white and blue baby mums and her bouquet blue and white mums and daisies.

The bridesmaid Miss Evelyn Hathercole wore a pink lace ensemble, white accessories and carried a bouquet of mums and daisies.

Grace Diana, daughter of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a yellow and white lace dress and carried a basket of white and blue baby mums.

Best man was Reynold Gibbons, ringbearer was Patrick Daniel, son of the bride. Brothers of the groom Bert and Marshall were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a yellow flowered two-piece suit with beige accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The groom's mother wore a blue figured jersey dress with accessories to match and a pink corsage.

The wedding reception and dance were held in the Gibbons Hall. The bride's table was centred by a three tiered wedding cake made by Mrs. D. McLean and decorated by Mrs. Jean Toane. Master of ceremonies was Mr. Earl Toane. The brother-in-law of the bride proposed the toast to the bride.

Director Herbert Jeffery led the 75 fine musicians of the Saskatchewan Youth Band through a delightfully varied program at an open air concert held last Friday evening at the end of Grandin Shoppers Park. A fluctuating crowd of some 200 were on hand at the park for the performance, and when the full band opened up they could be heard in many parts of town.

Dance School adopts new syllabus

In reply to numerous enquiries regarding the classical ballet syllabus of the ISTD, the principals of the St. Albert School of Dancing offer some information on the change-over by the school from the RAD to the Imperial system.

The Imperial Society, which was founded in 1904, is world renowned not only for its two ballet branches (Cecchetti and Imperial) but also for ballroom, Greek, historical dance, modern stage, national, natural movement, and Scottish country dance.

The Imperial Ballet, which will be taught at the school. In future, is, in principal, and technique, the same as any other method, but offers more freedom and variety of movement. At an early age, the children are expected to be able to combine movements and fully under-

Teenagers present excellent concert

The success of the Saskatchewan government's program to provide young musicians with an opportunity to develop their skills to professional standards were evident in the excellence of the concert they gave in St. Albert last week. Band leaders from throughout Saskatchewan send their most promising musicians between the ages of 13 and 19 to Mr. Jeffery for auditions each year. This year 75 were selected from 160 who tried out.

Under these conditions rehearsal time is of course difficult, and the band can get together only three times a year for intensive practice as a unit - at Christmas, Easter and in the summer holidays for a week before going on tour. The fact that they play with such cohesiveness and balance is indeed a tribute to their director, Mr. Herbert A. Jeffery, program consultant on choral and instrumental music for Saskatchewan's general education branch.

Program selections ranged from classical, folk and contemporary music, with an occasional marching number in a quite remarkable repertoire for musicians of this age. They played with both restraint and exuberance according to the requirements of the music, and with a fine feeling for rhythm. It was refreshing to be entertained so well by a group of talented young people.

Coulombes celebrate Golden

At a recent celebration in the town of Légal, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Coulombe of #404, 10904 - 133A Ave., renewed their marital vows.

The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. E. Rheaume in St. Emile's church where the original wedding ceremony occurred 50 years ago.

Many of the guests present had also participated at the original wedding reception.

After the mass the couple was driven in a Vintage 1920 Model T Ford through the streets of the town to the community hall.

Approximately 300 guests were present at the banquet and dance. Mr. Donald Letourneau served as master of ceremonies. The toast was presented by the groom's cousin, Mr. D. Coulombe.

One of the highlights at the banquet was the beautiful wedding cake -- a masterpiece of cake decorating performed by Rev. Sister A. Henly of the Grey Nun's Regional Centre.

Relatives and friends

came from great distances to attend the jubilee celebrations.

From the area of Providence Rhode Island - Mrs. Dolores Robitaille, Mrs. Etienne Jusaume, Miss Claire Hebert, Mrs. Cecile Calouette, Mr. and Mrs. H. Rockwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Oates. From Quebec - Mr. and Mrs. Hyacinthe Coulombe; Mrs. Roger Potvin and her two daughters. From Los Angeles - Mr. and Mrs. Normand Hebert. From Seattle - Mr. and Mrs. A.

Beaudoin and Mr. and Mrs. G. Beaudoin. From Montana Mrs. Joachin Caouette and Mrs. Yvonne Newman. From Victoria - Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dean. From Ile a La Crosse, Sask. - Rev. Sister C. Beaudoin.

Messages of congratulations were received from Lt. Governor Grant MacEwan, the Hon. Harry Strom Keith Everett MLA, and Mr. Romeo Lamothe, a long time friend and MLA for the district of Bonnyville.

stand the syllabus. As the child progresses, his or her own personality and style are encouraged to develop in order that their creative ability will not be cramped.

Children who have in the past studied the RAD system of ballet will simply proceed to the next grade and will be unaware of any differences.

In January of this year Gladys Smith and Alma Hughes were awarded Licentiate status with the society along with two teachers in Calgary and one other in Edmonton.

Parents and children from the school who in the past have been involved with the Imperial Society's exams and teaching methods in tap and modern dance, are fully aware of the proficiency of the society and its results, and Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Smith are looking forward to teaching the Imperial ballet syllabus, which they are sure will be enjoyed by all the students.

Gladys Smith (left) and Alma Hughes use nine-year-old Patti Hughes as a guinea pig while going over the new Imperial syllabus being adopted by their school.

AS I SEE IT

By Rose Martel

In September the school doors will open on another term for our students.

Some parents expect miracles. Teachers are expected to transform little John or Mary into models for society. But for five or six years little John and Mary have taken up the habits of the parents and reflect the example set at home by mother and dad.

Do parents realize the pressures and tensions that students have to bear and work under today? How many parents have a good communication line open between the school and home? How many parents take the time to check out the truth, when students complain? How many parents take the time to inspect school facilities on the spot when students complain about the lack of water fountains or toilet facilities? What happens when new winter boots start disappearing by the dozen? Do parents work with the schools to improve the situation? Children are pressured by two groups of adults who may seem to forget the human needs of children and the demands made of them never asking the necessity or the useful purpose of these demands.

Parents who have children on barbiturates to help them meet the challenges of childhood years better get professional counselling themselves.

The way I see it -- many parents fail to recognize and meet the daily needs of their children. They have time for everything, they have money for every social event in the community. They are joiners of every club, but they are too busy, and the children, the poor students, have to fight their tensions alone.

We have maladjusted parents, we have maladjusted teachers, we live in a material oriented society, where there seem to be no proper place for the voice and the needs of the youth of today.

Morinville district

By Rose Martel

Mr. Frank Robinson and Mr. Wilfred Fitzpatrick have announced that schools in Morinville will open Sept. 1.

Cunningham School and Thibault School district pupils will register in the afternoon of Tuesday, Sept. 1 beginning at 1 p.m. for grades from 1 - 12.

For pupils attending Cunningham School there will be no school on Wednesday, Sept. 2. Regular classes will resume Sept. 3. All pupils attending Notre Dame School the yellow school or Georges P. Vanier School will commence regular classes on Sept. 1 for a full week of school.

The board of trade will hold a supper meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 1 at the Morinville Legion Hall. Supper will begin at 7 p.m. sharp. A heavy agenda is being prepared for the first meeting of the fall and all members are requested to attend.

Mr. Fred Henry is reported resting after the serious farm accident last week. He is reported to be a patient in the Royal Alexandra hospital and the injuries are healing from the grain auger accident.

Morinville is happy to welcome two distant visitors. Mrs. Beatrice Surette from Everett, Mass. has been visiting her sister Mrs. Augustin Bilic and the group enjoyed a motor trip to the Rockies.

Mademoiselle Marguerite Gauthron of Paris, France is a visitor at the home of Gaston and Joffre Kremer. Prior to her wedding last Saturday Miss Sharon Behiels was the guest of honor at two miscellaneous bridal showers in Edmonton. Mrs. Madeleine Kremer and Mrs. Walter Behiels were hostesses.

Mrs. Claudette Turgeon accompanied by her son

George and her sister Miss Louise Casavant has returned from a six weeks motor trip to Eastern Canada and the United States.

Dr. and Mrs. V. G. Korompay have taken up residence into their new home in the northwest section of town.

Sturgeon approves three resolutions for AAMD

At the July meeting, council of MD Sturgeon approved three resolutions for consideration by the Alberta Association of MD's and counties. Two of these were approved by the Edmonton Union of Municipal Districts and Counties meeting July 27. The resolution on Assessment of Farm Buildings was tabled until the next meeting of the Union, when final approvals of resolutions for the Alberta Association of MD's and Counties Fall Convention, will be made.

PETITION FOR ANNEXATION

Whereas under the Municipal Government Act a petition signed by the majority of the registered owners of any territory may be presented to the Local Authorities Board requesting that the territory be annexed to a certain or to another municipality, improvement district or special area;

And when written objections of the municipality from which the land is taken or when written objections of at least one owner or any parcel of the land proposed to be annexed, are submitted the Local Authorities Board will hold a public hearing before giving a decision on the annexation application.

And since the applicants are creating financial hardship on the municipality from which the land is to be annexed by the requirements of preparing documents, hiring of solicitor, consultants, economists etc. to defend its position on such annexation application;

Be it resolved that the Government of Alberta implement legislation that would hold any unsuccessful applicants responsible for all fair costs incurred for such hearings by defending authority.

MOBILE HOMES

Whereas under the Municipal Government Act, the definition of "mobile home" means (1) any vacation or house trailer, (2) any structure whether ordinarily equipped with wheels or not, that is constructed or manufactured to be moved from one point to another by being towed or carried and to provide living accommodation for one or more persons;

And this definition has created difficulties to assessing homes that are manufactured, prefabricated, packaged or sectionally constructed and moved to land destination;

And a mobile home is not liable to assessment and taxation;

Be it resolved that the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts and Counties request the Alberta Provincial Government to provide legislation in order that mobile homes be subject to assessment and taxation for revenue purposes towards the costs of school and hospital requisitions and municipal service expenditures in the municipality where such mobile homes are located.

Further be it resolved, where mobile homes are located on Crown lands or lands not owned by mobile home owners that the existing mobile home license fee be not considered a license fee but a tax for revenue purposes and such fee or tax be based on the assessment of the mobile home multiplied by the existing mill rate of the municipality wherein the said mobile home is located.

ASSESSMENT ON FARM BUILDINGS

Whereas under the Municipal Taxation Act, the definition of farm buildings means the residence and other improvements used in the connection with the raising or production of crops, livestock, poultry, fur production or beekeeping situated on land used for such purposes. Such land may consist of one or more parcels of land operated as a unit by:

a) a person who derives from that activity an income sufficient to provide a livelihood where the unit contains 20 acres or more.

b) a person who derives from that activity thereon his principal income where the unit contains less than 20 acres;

And under the Act farm buildings are exempt from assessment;

And the definition of farm buildings is in many cases difficult to determine especially when the acreage is in the proximity of 20 acres.

Whereas many expensive homes have been constructed on small parcels of land in order to be classified as a farm residence and thus avoid assessment and taxation;

Whereas many commercial feeders, poultry enterprises, hog ranches, etc. are located on acreages of 20 acres more or less and thus qualify for the exemption of assessment taxation on the buildings but only pay taxes on the few acres where same are located;

Whereas if all farm buildings were assessed, such would provide a more equitable assessment;

Therefore be it resolved, that the association request the provincial government to amend the act so that all farm buildings be assessed separately from the land assessment, and that the assessment used for taxation purposes in relation to a parcel of land be either the improvements or the land assessment which ever is the greatest.

Sturgeon schools opening dates

Cunningham School in the town of Morinville and Mission Park School in the town of St. Albert will open at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 1 for the purpose of registering pupils. There will be no classes on Sept. 2 in these two schools in order to enable the teaching staff to make final program and planning adjustments.

Bon Accord School, Gibbons School, Horse Hill School, Namao School and Camilla School (Riviere Qui Barre) will register pupils on the morning of Wednesday, Sept. 2 commencing at 9 a.m.

There will be no classes on either Sept. 1 or the afternoon of Sept. 2 in these schools. Teaching staff, however, will be on hand and involved in planning and program adjustment.

The first full teaching day in all schools in Sturgeon Division will be Thursday, Sept. 3. Buses operating at all school centres will pick up students in sufficient time to allow for their arrival at school prior to the designated opening hour.

Bon Accord Mites are champs again

The Bon Accord 10 and unders won the first game of the play-offs 29-15 against Namao and went on to capture the championship by winning the second game 11-5 over Horse Hills.

This is the second year in a row that the team has won the Earl Mulligan Trophy in the Sturgeon Junior Baseball League for mite division champions.

Arriving in time for the play-offs, the team sported new royal blue with gold braid uniforms. These uniforms were earned through the walk-a-thon.

Warren Everitt won the Most Improved Player trophy for the season.

Dale Malanchen won the Most Valuable Player trophy during the play-offs.

Bon Accord mite division champions are: Darcy Kryskow, Daryll Andriuk, Blain Malanchen, Danny McKay, Victor Uchacz, Dale Malanchen, Warren Everitt, Robbie Hewitt, Asa Irmen, Murray Mulligan, Donald McKay, Billy Allen, David Uchacz, Dean Draper, Cameron Cline, Michael Uchacz, Bruce Moore and Larry Kelly.

Roy Malanchen and Don McKay coached the team.

M.D. Council Briefs

The public relations committee of MD Sturgeon will enquire from the Town of Fort Saskatchewan on matters of meter reading and water line maintenance. It was the understanding of some representatives that the town had a man from Associated Engineers doing this work. The committee will enquire as to the cost of extending such service to the municipality.

Council decided not to apply for any further automatic protection on railway crossings in the municipality to be installed during 1970.

A new Hyster model pneumatic compactor unit will be purchased from R. Angus, Limited. Equipped with 4236 Perkins engine, lighting 10-ply tires, pressure water system, dual control and sand ballast, the price is $14,500.

Public relations committee will take up the matter of water supply for the hamlet of Lamoureux with Associated Engineers. The municipality has received a request from 14 applicants for a supply from the northeast water line main.

Village opposes proposed colony

Keith Everitt, MLA, called on the Council of Bon Accord at their regular meeting Aug. 12, to get a reaction to the formation of a Hutterite Colony proposed for the Alameda-Morris area.

Because of the effect the colony would have on the Sturgeon School Division, as well as on the remainder of the residents in the northwest corner of the municipality, the council were opposed to the proposal.

The secretary was requested to write Mr. Delage asking for the removal of a tow truck from the street so that maintenance of street can be carried out.

Council discussed use of highway department grant for sidewalk construction. A mower and tiller have been purchased for village use.

Cardiff taking honours

By Florence Vranas
Four Cardiff people are members of the Wintburn Riding Club. These are: Harold and Heather Savard with son Darren and Earl Veldemans.

Three of them have competed in about four gymkhanas and have not come home empty-handed.

In the pee-wee class Darren Savard has won five freests; one fifth and two trophies.

Intermediate class Earl Veldemans has two freests; two seconds; two thirds and four fifths.

Harold Savard has won one first; one second; two fourths and two fifths. Keep up the good work!

Three trail rides were participated in recently by several local people who took their own horses.

The first was only for one afternoon and began from the gymkhana grounds at Wintburn.

On July 17 the second one lasted overnight and was enjoyed by the following people:

Earl, Billy and Karl Veldemans; Corrie and Darren Savard with their parents Heather and Harold.

On Aug. 1, 2 and 3 a three-day ride began from Cardam and extended about 31 miles into the mountains. Harold, Heather, Lloyd Savard and Earl Veldemans joined this with everyone having a wonderful time. More Cardiff residents plan to participate next year.

Cardiff Column

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rockwell took a second short holiday to Radium this time with daughter Dorleen as company.

Wm. Rockwell's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. George Cartwright with two grandchildren from Golden, B.C., have arrived and attended the 40th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGregor which was celebrated with open house on Aug. 15 at the McGregor home in Edmonton. Mrs. McGregor is Mr. Rockwell's sister and Mrs. Rockwell was hostess to a pre-anniversary dinner in her home for the two families on Aug. 14.

Harry Orydzuk just returned from a two-week holiday to the Okanagan and Cranbrook where he visited his younger brother Steve (Pinky).

Nick Orydzuk is presently employed as spreader operator with the CNR at Prince George.

On July 3 Ann Nouwen, daughter of Peter and Jane Nouwen of Cardiff became the bride of Martin Somers, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Somers Sr. of Kerkra, Holland. Martin Jr. (Marty) has been living in Canada for 2 1/2 years. The attendants for the wedding were Laurel Vranas and Paulette Rousseau with Hubert Erkens and John Nouwen.

The senior Somers' with only daughter Marlies and her fiancé Arno Weelen, journeyed to Canada for the occasion. After a two-week stay here they all returned to Holland.

Marty and Ann returned from their honeymoon on Aug. 14 which they spent in Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Germany, and Italy. They will make their home in the former Donald Grant residence in Cardiff. Welcome back Ann and Marty!

Meinczinger-Brenneis wedding vows exchanged

On Saturday June 20, 1970 the St. Anthony's Church in Busby was a scene of a pretty forenoon wedding of Theresa Mary Meinczinger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Meinczinger of Busby and Merle Dennis Brenneis of Mearns. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Father McCaffery. Bouquets and baskets of white mums, white peonies, white gladioli and daisies with ivy and cedar and mint-green bows decorated with daisies marked the pews. The bride looked lovely entering the church on her father's arm in her slender floor-length gown of white silk organza over taffeta. The front was panelled with medallion lace encasing the high bodice and short puffed sleeves. The removable train was also silk organza which encircled the train with medallion lace edging. Her three-tiered veil was held in place by tiny flowers. Her bouquet was a white cattleya orchid encircled with yellow roses, stephanotis fern and ivy. Attending the bride were Miss Lorraine Meinczinger sister of the bride, Miss Bernie Brenneis, sister of the groom and Mary Ann Eluik cousin of the bride. They wore identical floor-length gowns of mint-green silk organza over taffeta. All carried crescent bouquets of carnations edged in mint-green and pale yellow, fern and ivy with mint-green bows. Elaine Meinczinger sister of the bride, was flower girl and dressed in a short mint-green silk organza over taffeta, and carried a basket of miniature carnations and ivy. The groom's attendants were Wayne Brenneis, brother of the groom, Matthew Meinczinger, brother of the bride, Brian Brenneis, brother of the groom. Ring bearer was Michael Holzer cousin of the bride. Ushering the guests were Johnny Meinczinger, cousin of the bride and Marvin Brenneis, cousin of the groom.

Saints gain berth in league finals

St. Albert Willowbrook Saints will travel to Warburg this weekend to compete in a four-team double knockout tournament to decide the Oil-field Baseball League championship.

Saints automatically gained entry to the finals as they were the winners of the eastern division with Warburg winning the west crown. Cal-mar Angels were awarded the other eastern spot by winning on default over the Hobbema Indians. Drayton Valley Oilers pulled a big upset by taking Breton Eagles in two straight games. The Drayton Valley-Calmor game gets under way at 12 noon Saturday, followed at 2 p.m. by the Saints and Warburg.

Legal loses in Provincials

Legal Midgets with Roger St. Arnaud on the mound defeated Wamman Mustangs 10-0 for their only win at the Alberta Midget Baseball championships held in Erskine over the weekend.

Legal lost to the champion Erskine Playboys by the same score due largely to seven errors in the seventh inning which produced seven runs. Up to this point Legal pitcher Wayne Biggs held Erskine to only three hits. Legal was knocked out of the action by Orion Combines, 14-6, who in turn lost the final 5-4 to Erskine. This marks the second straight year Erskine has won the provincial midget championship.

Around Town

Ian Brindle, one of the three organizers of the Mutt and Purebred show to be held on Friday, reported Tuesday evening that 30 entries have been received to date. Entry deadline is Thursday noon, and the fee is 10¢ for conformation class and 10¢ for obedience class. Judges Mrs. Vance and Mrs. Elkins will select winners in purebred and mutt categories, with four selections per category. They will also choose a grand champion. Interested dog owners may telephone Peter Morris, 599-7185 or Ian Brindle, 599-3536.

Tourney sees good golf

Excellent weather and a beautiful golf course were in store for the Sturgeon Golf and Country Club Seniors tournament held on Sunday.

Orle Solloncy carried away the low gross honors with a fine 87 over the 6,560 yard par 73 course. H. Olesky and J. Whelply tied for second with 91. In the low net event D. Donovan and F. Hayes both carded 78 to share first place with S. Reidford one stroke back. Club pro Mike Tomash wishes to remind all members of the two-ball tournament coming Sept. 20 which starts at 1 p.m. with a bar-becue to follow. The last time this event was held 44 members took part and club president E. A. Bendera and Mrs. A. Fletcher were the low gross winners.

Debs enter finals

St. Albert Debs entered the finals of the second division of the Edmonton Ladies Fastball League without a ball being thrown. They were to have met the St. Albert Silhouettes in a best of three series but the Silhouettes failed to field a team on two straight occasions and the series was awarded to the Debs.

They will now take on Rosslyn for the championship.
